WARNING.

of Partisan Committee Indicates Unfair Methods in Convention.

Green, Ky., June 6, 1907.
Mooley says he is and has been as Chairman of the Democratic Party of Elliott county, Kentucky, January 25th, 1907, that duly elected to said position on January 25th, 1907, he met the Democratic Committee of the 32nd Judicial District, at K. Junction, and was there recognized as the legal Chairman of Elliott county, Kentucky, by the Committee, as well as by J. A. Gray and M. M. Redwine, who were present at said meeting.
January 25th, 1907, J. A. Gray to my house and stayed all night with me, and stated that he proposed me for Chairman on that day, but seeing that I had the majority of the Committee for me, he left understanding that he was not to be Chairman. He was then elected by the Committee on January 26th, 1907, helping and aiding on the time, place and manner of the meetings of said Committee and continued to act with said Committee until June 5th, 1907. On June 5th, 1907, the Committee met in Gray, Ky., at John Waugh's office, with them and again was recognized as the Chairman from Elliott county for two hours, during the meeting of said Committee. Then there arose a disagreement as to the manner of the call issued on at E. K. Junction, on June 26th, 1907, Mr. Frank Powers and Mr. Carter, claiming that the call was not upon as it reads above our names in this issue. After having discussed with the Committee at that time for two hours, and having agreed some matters that were before said Committee, Mr. Carter said, "I hate to do this, but it seems the only way," and he drew from his pocket and sold me a copy of the "credentials" of the County. The "credentials" were copied by me. They were Redwine's hand writing, and showed that he was the party mentioned in the call, having been elected on May 29, 1907, at the Court House, at Gray, Ky. The parties who claimed the call were five in number, to-wit: J. B. Hannah, Newcomb, Ambrose, A. L. Hook, S. L. Mearns, and A. L. Green, Newcomb, Ambrose, A. L. Hook, S. L. Mearns, and A. L. Green. These above named parties had now and never before been Chairman of any District in Elliott county, or any other county. Redwine knew this on May 29, 1907, which was the first day Elliott Circuit Court was held, and knows that no such meeting had at said Court House on that day.
The committee did not adopt the above report finally. By reference to the call published all over the district you will see that instead of the names being selected by the friends of the respective candidates, they are now to be named by the chairman. Any one can see the advantage in the event any of the chairmen are inclined to use it.
you or will you Democrats of Elliott Judicial District, aid a man to secure the nomination for Circuit Judge who would employ such methods to procure nomination? Do you believe that man who would employ such trickery to secure his own desires in his party, would make a good Judge?
I have always been his personal friend, and do not desire to do him injustice, and I am very sorry his actions warrant and "deceit" me to make this statement public.
Respectfully,
T. T. Mobley,
Chairman of the Democratic Committee of Elliott County.
I have examined the above letter and it states the facts so far in connection with the matters referred to as having occurred at meetings at the E. K. Junction. Following is the "call" referred to in the above letter as issued upon Mr. Powers and Mr. T. T. Mobley.
Kentucky Junction, Ky., 1-26, '07.
To a call by John S. Carter, Chairman of the 32nd Judicial District of Kentucky, all the County of said District met at the Hotel, on January 26th, 1907.
This meeting was called to by the Chairman. The object stated to fix the time and manner of nominating a Democratic candidate for Judge and Commonwealth Attorney for said 32nd Judicial District, to be voted for at the November election, 1907. Bert Shannon made secretary, whereupon a retrenchment convention was ordered to be held in all the precincts in counties of said 32nd Judicial District at one o'clock, p. m., on Saturday, June 22nd, 1907, the various Democratic precinct Committees in said county, shall on said 22nd day of June 1907, at one o'clock, p. m., standard time, at or near the voting place in their voting precinct, call the convention to order, stating the purpose of said convention. The known Democratic voters, shall by majority vote elect a permanent chairman to preside over said convention and a secretary. Friends of each candidate may name a teller for each candidate who shall be appointed by the chairman of the convention and said tellers shall count the voters present and find the number voting for each candidate. Said tellers and chairman of the convention and precinct chairman, shall certify to their County Chairman the number of votes cast for each candidate, which certificate shall be delivered to the County Chairman of each county by said tellers or convention chairman within five days from June 22nd, 1907. Should there be no Democratic precinct chairman present in any precinct in said Judicial District at the time stated, the known Democratic voters present shall elect a chairman of the convention and proceed as above stated.

At the precinct meetings only known Democrats who will be 21 years of age and over on November 5th, 1907, shall be allowed to vote or be counted in said convention. The County Chairman in all of the counties shall preserve said certificates and bring them to a meeting of all the County Chairmen of all the counties of said 32nd District to be held at a time and place not more than ten days after the 22nd day of June, 1907, to be held on the call of the chairman of said 32nd Judicial District, of which time and place he shall give notice to all the County Chairmen in said District. At said meeting, a majority of said County Chairmen being present, shall proceed to count the votes certified for each candidate and issue a certificate of nomination to the candidate receiving the greatest number of votes for Judge and Commonwealth Attorney. No candidate shall be voted for at said precinct meeting, who has not, on or before June 2nd, 1907, paid to John S. Carter, Chairman of this District $2.00 as entrance fee, said amount to be at the disposal of the Committee of the 32nd Judicial District. The fact of all who have entered and paid such fee, shall be certified to the County Chairmen of each county who shall notify their precinct Committees who have entered and who can be voted for within ten days from the 2nd day of June, 1907. The County Chairmen shall declare them or the one having no opposition the nominee and so certify his nomination to the County Clerk of the Four Counties of this Judicial District, and to the Secretary of State, that the one so nominated can have his name upon the Democratic ticket in the county he was elected to. He is to be voted for at the November election, 1907. The County Chairmen of each county shall send out post cards indicating this call as to the time and manner of holding said precinct meetings to be held for out of the fee paid in by the candidates.
The committee did not adopt the above report finally. By reference to the call published all over the district you will see that instead of the names being selected by the friends of the respective candidates, they are now to be named by the chairman. Any one can see the advantage in the event any of the chairmen are inclined to use it.
FROM MRS. KITCHEN.
Affidavit Supporting Her Statements in Former Letter.
Having heard of the slanderous attack made upon me by Redwine in his speech at Grayson Monday, I feel that in justice to myself and Mr. Hannah, Mr. Kitchen and I should make an affidavit that the charges made against Redwine in my former letter are true, and that Mr. Hannah knew nothing whatever of the letter, neither did any of his friends till after it was written.
Mrs. Wat A. Kitchen
Wat A. Kitchen.
Subscribed and sworn to before me this 11th day of June 1907. My commission expires January 29, 1908.
Orrie H. Burley, Notary Public.
I now wish to state to the public why I wrote that letter. It was not that I had any special interest in Mr. Hannah more than I would have had in any honorable man whom I believed to be worthy of the office, against a dishonorable man who had betrayed his trust and made merchandise of the office he held. Who had the cloak of hypocrisy so closely wrapped about him that he was deceiving good people year after year.
After finding him out we felt it our duty to expose his corruptness and try to get an honest and honorable man in office that would help put down the awful curse, the whiskey traffic. Mr. Kitchen can count fifty men in Elliott, Carter and Lawrence counties who have been selling whiskey year after year and compromising time after time. The records would show, if the people would only interest themselves in the welfare of this county to examine.
If all men would do as Mr. Vinson, of Louisville, they would find that Redwine not only aids the whiskey men, but the murderers as well.
Why is it people do not get their eyes open? I shall be happy if what we have said and done will aid in the suppression of Redwineism and the whiskey traffic.
Mrs. Wat A. Kitchen,
Willard, Ky.,
June 11th, 1907.

IN REPLY

M. M. Redwine's Neighbors Say--

To all the people, I take this means of replying to an article published in the Big Sandy News over the signature of Mrs. Watt A. Kitchen. It is strange that a woman in all this Judicial District could be found who could be made a tool of to slander so capable, just, fair and upright a man as Judge Redwine. In defense of our townsman and fellow-citizen I desire to say I have known M. M. Redwine for over thirty years and know him to be a man of truth and of the highest Christian character, for years he has lead and taught our children in Sunday School, and has ever impressed them with words of encouragement and pointed them to the higher life by leading lives of sobriety and uprightness. We know his worth as a citizen as a Christian gentleman in its truest sense.
The tree is known by its fruit. Judge Redwine is known and respected and admired by us all, for his goodness of heart and charitable deeds. He has for a quarter of a century aided the poor, buried their dead and lent a helping hand to the unfortunate, his corn cribs stand open to those who have no money to buy bread. We happen to know something of Mr. Redwine work for the temperance cause, and the suppression of the whiskey traffic. He has ever been faithful and true to every trust, he never cared to make money out of prosecutions, but bent every nerve and energy to stop the sale of whiskey and reform the seller and make good citizens out of them, which he has done in hundreds of cases. Yet it is awful to think that man or woman could be found so forgetful of the rights of a fellow-citizen as to say Mr. Redwine ever failed to discharge his whole duty for he never did. I will truthfully state the facts as to the prosecutions for selling whiskey at the foot of Dry Ridge.
Mr. Redwine succeeded in having George P. O'Neil, & Co., indicted by his own efforts and tried to get others, he asked W. A. Kitchen to have the officers serve process for the term, two witnesses were served and started to Martinsburg and they inquired if they must come on, Redwine replied: Judge Kinmer is gone, the Grand Jury is adjourned and we cannot use you which was a fact, yet Mr. Redwine did not compromise, but forced the whiskey sellers there to make an unconditional surrender, he drove them out of business by his untiring efforts and relentless prosecutions in the interest of those sweet little boys Mrs. Kitchen writes about, so they had to quit, but for Mr. Hannah whom she holds up as a temperance man. Alas, if she would go the records of the Elliott County Court where Porter and Dobbins by Hannah as their attorney, moved to sell this vile stuff, whiskey, by license at this same place where Redwine had driven them out, Mr. Hannah led the fight for Porter and Dobbins for whiskey license to sell at the foot of the dry ridge, and after a hard fight being opposed by M. M. Redwine who bravely fought the granting of the license, yet Hannah's appeals for the license prevailed and he succeeded in having an open saloon for Mrs. Kitchen's dear boys to drink at, and these were the last whiskey license granted in Elliott county, let that be known as the work of your Mr. Hannah. My God if Hannah has reformed and got in the temperance boat, why is it the whiskey men are for him, I know of Chas. Le Flanery who is running a distillery now at Webbville, Ky., and debauching those people, canvassing for Mr. Hannah for he has here last week working for Mr. Hannah. I saw him with my own eyes and heard him begging for votes for Hannah. The people know Mr. Redwine too well for any body to believe such writings or sayings, let every father, mother and son pray and vote that Justice be done a good man and that M. M. Redwine be elected and all will be well.
Yours truly,
Mrs. Alice Blair.

To Editor Morgan County News:
In order to vindicate myself and husband from being accused of taking any part in the coming Democratic Convention for Circuit Judge, I want to say in response to an article appeared in this paper some days ago supposed to be written by me that there must be some mistake as I never wrote or authorized to be written that article.
I know both the candidates and know them to be honest, upright gentlemen, but my husband and my family are republicans and we have no thing to do with Democratic conventions.
Signed, Alice Blair.
Delegates to Fayetteville.
The Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the M. E. Church South, Western Virginia Conference is in session this week at Fayetteville. The delegate from Louisa is Mrs. F. T. D. Wallace, Sr., one of the most prominent and efficient workers for missions and temperance in Kentucky. The Juvenile Society of Louisa is well represented by Miss Lucille Sullivan. Mrs. Wallace and Miss Lucille left for Fayetteville yesterday and will probably return next Monday

Give a Candidate Justice.

In defense of my word and honor I make the following statement, viz: I told Jas. Vinson I never asked for the parole or pardon of Martin or Justice the letters he publishes show the truth of that statement. I told him I had made statements on request to the board of paroles that I was not ashamed of what I had written for I had written nothing but what I believed to be the truth. I made a written statement that I had not asked for the parole of either of these men. His publication shows this to be truth. He does me a great injustice when he says I procured the parole of Martin. I did nothing of the kind the date of the statements show they were all made in 1904. Martin was paroled in 1907, so my statements had no effect. I submit the following from one of the Commissioners, viz: January 21st, 1907.
Hon. L. B. Johnson,
Frankfort, Ky.
Dear Sir:
Relative to your inquiry as to the reasons actuating the Board of Prison Commissioners in granting a parole to Charlie Martin a convict, sentenced to the penitentiary from Elliott county for the crime of Murder and received at the penitentiary in September 1898, I have this to say: Mrs. C. Oline Martin, the mother of the convict, appeared before the Board on many occasions. She is the only person who appeared before the Board in Martin's behalf as far as I know. She had a numerous signed petition requesting the parole of her son and it was upon the strength of that petition, the long service of Martin in the Prison, and his good prison record while there, that the Board acted. The petition was signed by County officials, Lawyers, Ministers, Merchants, Druggists, Teachers and Policemen of Boyd county. Some of the members of the jury who tried Martin and several members of the grand jury also joined in the request for the parole. Judge Redwine made a statement in writing to the Board, as required under its rules, concerning the crime of Martin and the testimony of certain witnesses. Judge Redwine never requested me to grant the parole nor appeared before the Board in behalf of Martin since I have been on the Board nor before as far as I know and his only statement to the Board was in writing and only gave the facts in the case and was not as I remember it a request that the parole be granted.
Very respectfully yours,
Ed. H. Brown,
Prison Commissioner.
All of which show I did not cause Martin's parole, yet I cannot blame Jas. Vinson, he has been imposed upon for political purposes and made to feel that I ought not even for truths sake to have complied with his request for a statement of the facts, and my view of the truth of them I have not done anything in this case that I would not do in any case I have prosecuted. I have written the truth as I saw and felt it, as I do under all circumstances. I am for truth, justice and the suppression of the whiskey traffic, whether elected or defeated.
Yours truly,
M. M. Redwine.
June 10, 1907.
E. E. Shannon, Esq.,
Louisville, Ky.
Dear Sir:
Your letter of June 2nd to hand and noted. Mr. Brown stated in a letter to Hon. L. F. Johnson that the reason Charlie Martin was paroled was on account of the prisoners' signed petition of good citizens. In answer to your questions I will say that I did not tell Mr. James Vinson or any one else that Martin was paroled on the statement of Commonwealth's Attorney M. M. Redwine nor did I tell them M. M. Redwine was not asked for a statement in the case in fact I did not advance any reason for the Board granting the parole other than a presentation of the papers on file. All comments were made by the parties themselves and I only certified copies of letters in record on file as requested by them. I trust that the above answers are satisfactory.
Very truly,
J. P. Barlow,
Secty., Prison Commission.

Midnight Marriage.

As the city clock was tolling the midnight hour and Monday slipped quietly from the calendar to make room for Tuesday, the solemnly impressive service was held by the Rev. S. G. Dehord, that marked the life-time mating of Mr. William Moore and Miss Bertha Hicks of this city. The ceremony was performed in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hicks, in the presence of only a few intimate friends and the members of the families of the contracting persons.
The wedding is surrounded by a few rather interesting facts in which some of the friends of the groom took an active part. Mr. Moore, who is a former medical student, but who has been employed in Columbus, Ohio, came back here from that city yesterday, and immediately after the wedding, for the Ohio city, where, so he stated, he would soon take his bride, and where they will reside. For the time being Mrs. Moore will reside here with her parents.—Ashland Independent.

NOT AN INFIDEL.

J. B. Hannah Says Report is Slanderous and Disproves the Charge.

Sandy Hook, Ky., June 11, 1907.—I wish to say to the public that any report that I am an infidel or an unbeliever in the Christian religion is absolutely false and untrue and without any foundation whatever.
While I am not a member of any church, there is no man who has a higher regard for the church and church institutions than I have, and no impartial person who knows me will say otherwise, and it is a well-known fact that the ministers of my home county are practically unanimous for me in my race for Judge, as well as nearly all, if not all, the ministers who have presided over the Martinsburg District of the M. E. Church, South, the church of which my opponent is a member.
Appended hereto will be found letters from ministers of the leading churches of my home county which speak for themselves.
Again branding as false, this slanderous report, as maliciously false, I am,
Very respy,
J. B. Hannah.
Hbx, Elliott county, Ky., June 7th, 1907.—This is to certify that I have known J. B. Hannah since his boyhood and have never seen him do anything or heard him say anything that indicated that he was an infidel and have never heard any such charge against him until today.
When I was County Judge he did more than any member of the Bar to assist me in trying to suppress the illegal sale of whiskey and without compensation.
I am a warm supporter of Mr. Hannah in his race for Circuit Judge and did I believe he was an infidel I certainly would not support him.
R. L. Rose,
Minister Baptist Church.
This is to certify that I know J. B. Hannah and that he has always attended religious services when I officiated and has liberally supported the same and I have found him a gentleman in every sense of the word.
B. F. Gosling,
Presiding Elder Ashland Dis.
Newcomb, Ky., 6-8, '07.
To whom it may concern:
This certifies that I have known J. B. Hannah for twenty-four or thirty years, and that I never knew or heard anything from him that indicated that he was an infidel or an unbeliever, and never heard of his being charged with being an infidel or unbeliever until today, and I believe this infamous falsehood was gotten up wholly for the purpose of injuring Mr. Hannah in his race for the nomination for Circuit Judge. He has been a frequent attendant at church when I have preached in his town, and has, to my personal knowledge, been a liberal supporter of the church and kindred institutions.
The good people of Elliott county believe Mr. Hannah to be the Moses called and chosen to lead the young men of the county out of the wilderness of whiskey drinking, whiskey selling and debauchery.
We have tried the present incumbent, Mr. Redwine, and have found him to be a miserable failure.
Elect Mr. Hannah Judge and there will be no more compromising with whiskey sellers, and no more cheap license granted to sell the accursed stuff.
Yours respy,
David A. Fraley,
Minister of the Christian Church.
P. S. One and one-half miles above my home is a distillery that is a great calamity to our county, and the proprietors are very warm for Mr. Redwine, and, in fact, the whiskey people of Elliott county are for Mr. Redwine, David A. Fraley.
Olive Hill, Ky., June 11th, 1907.—This is to certify that I have known J. B. Hannah for twenty-five or thirty years, and I have to-day for the first time heard the accusation of infidelity brought against him. I have been in Elliott county as a preacher for the last twenty years and during that time know of Mr. Hannah not only attending church, but know of him showing special interest in the cause, and also know that he has always been, and is at present a liberal supporter of the church.
I am myself for Mr. Hannah, and believe it would be a benefit, spiritually and morally, for others to give their support to him, as I know that is a true supporter of the temperance cause, and will not permit compromising or flitting away of prosecutions against men for the illegal sale of whiskey.
S. L. Porter,
Minister in the M. E. Church.
Olive Hill, Ky., June 11th, 1907.—This is to certify that I have been preaching in Elliott county for the last ten years, and that during one year of that time I have been pastor of the church at Martinsburg, and during that time I have known J. B. Hannah as a man who was a regular attendant at church, and have never heard of him being accused of being an infidel. While not a member of any church that I know of he has always shown a respectful interest, and has ever and always been one of the very strongest temperance men I ever knew, and a tireless worker in that cause.
John C. Porter,
Minister M. E. Church, South.
I further state that I am for Hannah, and think as an honest man that all good people ought to vote for him, first because he is a nice man, and a fine lawyer, second, because he is opposed to crime and will do right to all men, third, because he will not try a man for one offense and file away a dozen more in which they are equally guilty.

John C. Porter.

To whom it may concern:—
I have known J. B. Hannah for twenty years. I was Pastor of the Baptist Church at Martinsburg one year, and I have taught school five months in Martinsburg.
Mr. Hannah is a man of excellent character and habits, a strong temperance advocate, and never heard anything of or from him that would indicate that he was an infidel.
He attended service when I preached, and always showed interest and respect to services.
Wm. Jayne,
Missionary Baptist Church.

JAMES VINSON

Makes Further Statement as to the Parole Matter.

I hear that M. M. Redwine and his henchmen are trying to exonerate him from blame in the parole of the murderer of my father and from the charge I have made of trying to deceive us about it.
They are showing a letter that was procured from Eli Brown by his good friend Redwine to make it appear that his letters did not amount to much.
The following letter was written to the Prison Board in 1906, after Eli Brown became a member of that body:
"I prosecuted Charlie Martin there is considerable doubt as to the guilt of Martin and Justice. Martha Gause the star witness swore she knew nothing of the case,
Yours,
M. M. Redwine."
Any reasonable person can see the effect of this kind of a statement, coming from the official who prosecuted the case. He argued to the jury that there was not even a REASONABLE DOUBT of the guilt of the men. The jury believed from the evidence that there was not a reasonable doubt and gave the men life sentences.
"Considerable doubt" means more than a "reasonable doubt." No honest, upright prosecuting Attorney will do all in his power to send men to the gallows or to the penitentiary when there is considerable doubt about their guilt. He certainly knew at the time of their trial just as well or better than he knows now whether the evidence indicated that these men were probably innocent. I did not want to send innocent men to death or to prison. If Redwine had told me at any time that there was "considerable doubt" as to their guilt I would have dropped the prosecution. Why did Mr. Redwine wait nine years before his conscience moved him to write the Prison Board? It was not his conscience that prompted him to write these letters; it was the request of relatives of the men, some of whom are influential in politics, that made him take action and conclude that there was considerable doubt about their guilt. Such a just and upright man, as Mr. Redwine pretends to be would not be able to sleep over sending innocent men to prison and keeping them there nine years when his request would have turned them out. All the sleep he is losing about it is whether his action is going to hurt him in this campaign.
Another fact that I did not expose in my first article is that Mr. Redwine wrote to the Prison Board in January 1907, asking them to return to him all the letters he had written in these cases. This was after he had learned how the relatives of Lacey Vinson felt about his action. He also requested a letter from Mr. Brown exonerating him from responsibility in the parole. Having been voted for in the last Legislature by Mr. Redwine, Mr. Brown no doubt did the best he could for him. I was told at Frankfort by Clerk of the Prison Board that the Board never wrote or asked Redwine to make a statement in these cases.
Mr. Redwine can not deny that he attempted to cover up his work and deceive us about the part he took. The affidavit that I referred to in my other article is so worded that it is calculated to deceive. Such efforts at deception are too low for a Circuit Judge to stoop to. Why did he not come out like a true man and acknowledge what he had done without waiting to have the truth brought out in other ways.
I want to say positively that this thing did not start in this campaign. It started when Charlie Martin was paroled. Mr. Redwine convinced us that he had nothing to do with it and we laid the blame on Gov. Beckham. Later, through our relatives at Catlettsburg and Ashland we learned that we had been deceived and I went to Frankfort to find out of myself. Then I took the matter into the campaign because I believe every honest voter in this district should have a chance to know what kind of a man is asking for votes for the high office of Circuit Judge. Then if they vote wrong they do so with their eyes open.
James Vinson.
The Social given by the ladies of the M. E. Church South, last Friday evening was in all respects a success. The attendance was large and liberal, and the consumption of salads, berries, creams and ices was something to gladden the hearts of the promoters.

Frankfort, Ky., June 6.—Governor Beckham to-day appointed James S. Morris, of Frankfort as special Judge of the Wolfe Circuit Court to try Walter R. Day, formerly Republican State Treasurer, for obtaining money under false pretenses, he having been indicted in that county as well as in Breathitt.

While at the Danville courthouse, in conference with friends, County Judge R. S. Nickols, of Boyle county, fell dead Friday night. For a quarter of a century he had been the leader of the Democrats of his county. His sudden end caused a great shock.

By a majority of 229 the citizens of Bowling Green voted in favor of prohibition, the "drys" carrying every precinct but one. The women of the city took an active part in the election, being present at every polling place. Ten arrests were made on warrants charging bribery or intimidation, but bail was furnished promptly.

Campton, Ky., June 7.—Peter Stricklin, who last Saturday shot and killed Mat Sloan, his brother-in-law, at Lee City, this county, was this morning acquitted in an examining trial before County Judge Center, the proof showing that Sloan was under the influence of whiskey and had gone to the home of Stricklin and was attempting to kill him.

Georgetown, Ky., June 7.—Little Willie Penn, the three-year-old son of W. S. Penn, a carpenter, at noon to-day took arsenated strychnia tablets by accident, dying within a few minutes. His father kept a bottle of the tablets on a shelf out of reach and used them for nervousness. The son evidently climbed up, and taking the sugar-coated stuff, nearly emptied the bottle down his throat.

Cynthiana, Ky., June 6.—A reunion of the members of Capt. Shawhan's Company, who saw service in the Mexican War, was held in this city today. Sixty-one years after they first started for the battlefield, only seven out of a company of ninety-eight are living. All seven were present. A banquet was given them at the Commercial Hotel. The following answered the roll call: W. S. Chesney, St. Louis, Mo.; Joseph Walter, of Alabama; David Ross, Mt. Olivet, Ky.; James Warford, Millersburg, George Givens, Wesley Smith, Thomas Miller, Harrison county.

Twenty-one lives were lost when a cloudburst struck the little town of Gradyville in Adair county, Friday, and it may be that more bodies will be found in the wreckage of the houses swept away. A wall of water swept down the narrow banks of a small creek and overwhelmed those houses which were built close to the stream. In the path of the cloud burst fences were washed away and growing crops torn up, fields being left entirely bare. State Senator Nell was the only one of his family to escape death, his wife and five children being drowned or killed. Monday was a day of funerals, and the supply of coffins had to be renewed before all the dead could be buried.

The forest service has recently published a series of forest planting leaflets dealing with a number of trees that are adaptable to cultivation in Kentucky and other States of the Ohio and Mississippi Valleys. Among the trees dealt with are the yellow poplar, osage orange, black walnut, coffee tree, white willow, box elder, white ash, hazy catalpa, black cherry, sugar maple and green ash. Several of these, notably the black walnut and others, the forest service experts say, thrive best of all in Kentucky and the more Northern Ohio Valley States. The leaflets describe the locations that are best methods of planting and cultivating the economic value of different trees and other points of interest to persons intending to undertake forest cultivation for immediate profit or for the benefit of posterity. The service is anxious to arouse interest generally in the subject of reforestation of our country and it is meeting with considerable success.

Frankfort, Ky., June 6.—Lee Holder, aged 17, who has been under trial at Union City, Madison Co., for the murder of his father, near here several months ago, and who was found guilty, was today sentenced by Judge Jones to be hanged July 12. He is the youngest man ever sentenced to death in this section. While his father was returning home from a lodge meeting in town, young Holder crept up behind him and shot him in the back with a shotgun. As the old man lay dying at his feet, begging for mercy, the Holder boy beat his brains out with the stock of his gun. On his return home, he attempted the wholesale murder of the family by poison, but physicians saved them. A new trial was applied for, but refused. Attorney General Caldwell, of Tennessee, prosecuted Holder.

HERE'S GOOD ADVICE. O. S. Woolever, one of the best known merchants, of Le Raysville, N. Y., says: "If you are ever troubled with piles, apply Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It cured me of them for good twenty years ago." Guaranteed for sores, wounds, burns or abrasions. 25c at A. M. Hughes, drug store.

Convention Call.

The Democrats of Lawrence county are called to meet in relative strength convention in the various voting precincts on June 22nd, at one o'clock p. m., for the purpose of voting for candidates for the Democratic nomination for Judge and Commonwealth's Attorney of the 32nd Judicial District, to be voted for at November election 1907.

The various democratic precinct Committeemen in each County shall on said 22 day of June, 1907, at 1 o'clock p. m., at or near the voting place in their voting precinct from the democratic voters in said precinct appoint tellers one for each candidate, who shall count the voters present and find the number voting for each candidate. Said tellers and precinct committeemen shall certify to their County Chairman the number of votes cast for each candidate which certificate shall be delivered to the County Chairman of each county by said tellers or precinct committeemen within three days from June 22, 1907. Should there be no Democratic precinct Committeeman in any precinct in said Judicial Dist. present at the time stated the Democratic voters present shall elect a Chairman who appoints two Tellers who shall proceed to count the vote for each candidate and certify and deliver same as above stated.

All Democrats 21 years of age and those who will be 21 by Nov. 5, 1907, shall be allowed to vote in their respective precincts in said convention. John S. Carter, chm. Bert Shannon, sec.

A DANGEROUS DEADLOCK.

that sometimes terminates fatally, is the stoppage of liver and bowel functions. To quickly end this condition without disagreeable sensations, Dr. King's New Life Pills should always be your remedy. Guaranteed absolutely satisfactory in every case or money back, at A. M. Hughes' drug store. 25c.

BUSSEYVILLE.

F. R. Bussey, who has been on the sick list since Friday of last week, is better.

Dr. J. C. Bussey, of Louisa, was attending his brother Mont.

B. J. Chaffin, the popular and industrious representative of Hagen, Ratcliff and Co., was here Tuesday. Bill is the right man in the right place.

The Sunday School at this place will have Children's Day exercises next Sunday night, a nice program has been arranged and a good time is expected.

An ice cream festival will be given at Forks of Little Blaine, Evergreen church, Saturday night June 22. A good time will be had.

W. J. Vaughan did not get out here last Friday as was expected on account of fearful rain.

Last Sunday evening while the Sunday School was in session at Evergreen we had what was considered a fearful storm, and by the time Sunday School was over Little Blaine had put on her trotting harness and was sweeping the country from hill to hill, doing more damage to crops than has been done for years. Our farmers are greatly discouraged just now.

Cold and wet weather, cut worms, storms and high water have put us in a sad condition, but we do not murmur nor complain, for it does no good.

Rev. Walker did not fill his pulpit here last Sunday on account of a visit to Ohio, whither he went to visit home folks.

Revs. Sego and Kemper have just closed a very successful series of meetings, evangelizing, at Osie, and Bro. Sego is now here at home for a few weeks.

James Compton has his shingle machine in working order now and is doing lots of work.

R. W. Meek has his new house almost completed. Buckskin Bess.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

We are authorized to announce M. Redwine as a candidate to fill the unexpired term of two years as Judge of the 32nd Judicial District of Kentucky, composed of the counties of Elliott, Morgan, Carter and Lawrence subject to the action of the Democratic party of said district.

We are authorized to announce J. B. Hannah, of Elliott county, as a candidate for Circuit Judge of the 32nd District, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Convention June 22nd.

As To Candidates.

The Big Sandy News has always maintained a neutral position in local races for Democratic nominations. Our readers may depend upon the fact that we are paid for the publication of every article that has any bearing upon the candidacy of any one, directly or indirectly. All candidates are given the privilege of using the columns on the same terms. The articles are published as advertising and do not carry with them the indorsement of the NEWS.

Mrs. J. Killcrease, of Pine Mills, ten miles from Mineola, Tex., celebrated her 131st birthday Monday. She was born June 10, 1776. She resides with her daughter and granddaughter, both of whom are also very old.

Augustus E. Willson, of Louisville, has made formal announcement that he is a candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor. He made the announcement to a crowd about the size of the one which heard him speak in Louisa two or three years ago.

The State Board of Equalization has filed its report with Auditor Hager, showing the valuation of Kentucky realty and personally to be $717,982,913.

This is an increase of $39,940,995 over last year's assessment.

Lawrence county pays $12,437.54 tax, Johnson 9,984.64, Floyd 13,065.26 and Pike 21,431.99.

Menefee pays the least tax, 3,349.47, and Jefferson the most, $793,769.98.

To The Sunday Schools.

Lawrence County School Convention will be held in Louisa, Kentucky, July 17th and 18th. The Superintendent of each Sunday School is requested to elect their delegates as soon as possible and send the name of each delegate to Miss Mellie Bromley that homes may be provided for in ample time.

A Good Hair-Food

Ayer's Hair Vigor, new improved formula, is a genuine hair-food. It feeds, nourishes, builds up, strengthens, invigorates. The hair grows more rapidly, keeps soft and smooth, and all dandruff disappears. Aid nature a little. Give your hair a good hair-food.

Does not change the color of the hair.

Formula with each bottle
Show it to your doctor
Ask him about it,
then do as he says

You need not hesitate about using this new Hair Vigor from any fear of its changing the color of your hair. The new Ayer's Hair Vigor prevents premature grayness, but does not change the color of the hair even to the slightest degree.

PERT PARAGRAPHS

Picked Up At Pike, Paint and Prestonsburg.

The many friends of Miss Lennie Literal were very much surprised, to learn that she and Joseph Cantrill had eloped and were married.

Out of ninety-five applicants who took the teachers' examination at Pikeville, only seventeen received certificates. This is by far the greatest percentage of failures we have ever known in Pike county.

A number of workmen passed up last week to work on the Elkhorn City bridge. The work will soon be commenced and a new iron bridge will connect Elkhorn City with the outside world. This may mean a further extension of the C. and O. railroad.

Sergeant J. K. Dooley, a small mining town east of here, was visited by a disastrous conflagration, sweeping the entire business district. Loss, $40,000, partially insured. Mrs. Patrick Snodgrass, a sick woman, was carried from her burning home just in the nick of time. She is now in a precarious condition and will die.

The court, Judge Nunn writing, reversed judgment of the Magoffin Circuit Court in a case of Leander Risner against the Commonwealth, and remanded for new trial under instructions. The appellant was convicted of manslaughter in the killing of one Warnie Arnett and sentenced to five years' imprisonment.

Paintsville, Ky., June 8. — Dennis Smith was sentenced to-day to one year in the pen for obtaining false testimony in Court. In April, when a prisoner unlocked the jail door and walked out, he invited Smith to go with him, but the latter stayed, saying he was innocent, and would come clear.

John F. Butler, Commonwealth's Attorney, has brought suit against the Land Grant Company for forfeiture of title, under the Revenue Act of 1906, of all lands claimed by it in Pike county. The object of the suit is to remove the land grant cloud from the peoples' titles and forever bury the old Virginia grants. Similar suits have been brought in Letcher, Floyd and Knott counties.

Cyclone at Catlettsburg.

The severest storm in the history of that section passed over Catlettsburg from west to east between 6 and 7 o'clock Monday afternoon. Hail as large as walnuts fell for fifteen minutes and so thickly that one could not see half a square. Following the hail, rain fell in torrents and the streets were flooded curb deep, the hail drifting in places three feet high.

Houses were unroofed, church steeples, smokestacks, and trees, blown down. One new house, unoccupied, was turned over. After the storm had spent its fury the streets were strewn with debris of all kinds. The stacks of the electric light station were blown down and falling through the roof disabled the machinery, and the city was in darkness.

The courthouse was partly unroofed. The steamer Cando, lying at the local wharf, was overturned by the wind and went down the river on its side. One man, the watchman on the Cando, is reported missing, and probably has been drowned.

The H. Krish Company, wholesale dry goods; Sam Rosenthal, owner of the Beehive store; the D. H. Carpenter Company; Rupert McClung, photographer; John C. Hogan, druggist, and the Z. Meek Company, grain dealers, are the heaviest losers so far as reported.

M. S. Rosenthal, wife of the proprietor of the Beehive store, was in the building during the storm. She fainted from fright, and is at the Alger House still unconscious.

At the York House, where 100 timber men are lodging, the roof was cut full of holes and the second and third floors were flooded.

Patton Brothers, wholesale druggists and glaziers, wired an order to Cincinnati for $5,000 worth of glass to supply the demand.

A. B. Priest, prominent timber dealer of Martin county, has a tract of three hundred acres of land on Wolf creek, from which he will get over thirty-three hundred logs of merchantable size. On this rise he brought to market eight rafts of about one hundred logs each. Mr. Priest tells of one of the biggest deals in timber ever made in this section of the state. Men are now on the ground measuring and counting the trees on a tract of land containing 8,000 acres, and the price to be paid for it will be in the neighborhood of $65,000. The land formerly belonged to a Mr. Gaudot, of Williamson, but according to Mr. Priest's information it now belongs to some company.

Mr. Jerry Bartram, of Fort Gay, went to Charleston with his son Edgar Wednesday of last week to have him treated for the bite of a dog which is supposed to be mad. A party there owns a madstone which was brought from India in 1753, and it has been successfully applied in two hundred and eighteen cases. The stone was applied to the wound on Edgar's hand on Thursday at noon, and it adhered until Saturday morning at nine o'clock.

Mr. Bartram will be glad to give anyone interested all the information he can concerning the stone or treatment.

Mailed to be Weighed.

All mail in the United States will be weighed for a period of six months, beginning July 1, and will also be classified. This is done to secure data from which to make contracts with the railroads for the carrying of mail. This will entail a very large amount of extra work on the postal officials. Postmasters will be required to weigh all mail as it leaves the office. This is the first time the mail has been weighed in this way.

Mr. George McClure, of the Deaf and Dumb Institute, Danville, is with Louisa relatives for a few days. According to custom Mr. McClure went up the Big Sandy to conduct some of his pupils safely to their homes, and before he went to Danville he made his visit to his mother and others of his family. From having been a pupil himself Mr. McClure has reached a responsible place in the faculty of the school, and were it not for the regulation which requires the Superintendent to be able to hear and speak he would be the head of this great institution.

Notice to Farmers.

D. J. Burnett, Jr., will grind your corn for you for one-eighth toll. Will grind at any time. Fair treatment guaranteed. Bring in your corn. Store and mill opposite passenger depot.

of the "Southern West Virginian," but now residing near Louisa, Ky.,
is in the city attending court. —
Mingo Republican.

Dr. Homer Snyder and bride were in Louisa Wednesday, guests of Mr.
and Mrs. Augustus Snyder. They had been on an Eastern wedding trip and are en route to Edgarton, W. Va., where Dr. Snyder has a fine practice.

F. F. Brooks, of Pittsburg, and John M. Rice, of Catlettsburg, were at the Brunswick yesterday. They had been to Chapman in the interest of the company constructing the lock at that point. They came from Chapman in a skiff.

Children's Day was handsomely observed by the M. E. Sunday School last Sunday evening. The interesting and appropriate exercises were attended by a very large and highly pleased audience.

The engagement of Miss Virginia
Savage to Mr. Ned Poage, of Ashland, has been announced, the wedding to occur June 26. The bride elect has relatives in Louisa where she is well and pleasantly known.

Dr. and Mrs. W. B. McClure and daughter, Miss Martha, of Lexington, are the guests of Louisa relatives.
They are returning from Atlantic City, where Dr. McClure had been attending the annual meeting of the American Medical Association. This is their first visit to Louisa in two years.

William Rathbone and family, well known and popular people, whose intended departure from this place was noticed in the NEWS last week, have gone to their new place of residence, Home City, O. Mr. Rathbone had been connected with locks and dams for many years, but the Cincinnati Contract Company has given him a better place. Mrs.
Rathbone is a most estimable lady,
and she and Miss Nina will be much missed.

isa or Lawrence county boy who hastened and waits.

Hang Out Your Banners!

Friday, June 14, will mark the one hundred and thirtieth anniversary of the adoption of the stars and stripes as the flag of the United States. In celebration of the anniversary it is the purpose of the American Flag Association to urge all municipal, State and Federal officers, as well as all citizens, to display the flag of the nation on that day.

Patriotic Louisians should keep up with the procession and hang out the starry emblem of freedom to-day.

Kentuckian Killed.

Last Thursday afternoon No. 16
struck and instantly killed Taulbee McCown, 23 years of age, and whose home is at Shelby, Kentucky. For some time the young man had been employed at the plant of the Peerless Brick Company Williamson and was on his way to the city when hit by the train.

No. 16 is due there at 3:45 and about ten minutes before that time a west bound freight train pulled out of the yards. The young man was walking on the east bound track and the freight was approaching on the west bound and it is supposed that the noise made by the freight kept him from hearing the approach of
No. 16.

The body, accompanied by a brother of the unfortunate young man, was taken to Harold last Friday morning.

A Call To Arms.

You have heard the clash of sym-bals and the roll of the drums, have you? It's the signal that the company formed and now being drilled every afternoon by Lieut. Bond will meet down at the "Government" and be put through the exercises, which will fit them for the parade on the 4th of July. This company will be a striking feature in our celebration. Lieut. Bond is an officer in the United States army, entirely competent to drill a company or a regiment, and he is unsparing in his efforts to get his company into shape. Recruits are wanted to bring the organization up to greater size.

Cloudbursts.

The continuous heavy rains have made great havoc of the railroads, particularly at the head of both rivers. Bridges and hundred of feet of track have been washed away between Prestonsburg and Marrow-bone. The morning train out of Ashland Tuesday did not get back until about eight o'clock that night, and the train from Pikeville, due here at 9:30, did not get here at all. No. 15 on the N. and W. arrived at Fort Gay about 5 p. m., and No. 3, due about 2 a. m., got in about 7. The damage to both roads is very great.

Mr. W. H. Peters and Miss Nora Fraser, were united in wedlock's holy bonds about 4 o'clock Saturday evening, June 8.

The ceremony was performed on the bridge by Rev. Hewlett.
The groom is the son of W. D.
Peters, and has a position as brak-man on the N. and W. with headquarters at Portsmouth. The bride is the charming daughter of Mr.
James Fraser, and is one of Wayne county's popular school teachers.—Fort Gay Leader.

TO FARMERS.

Here is a good Market for Your Garden Truck.

We will buy all the new potatoes, new beans, cucumbers, tomatoes, and in fact nearly all kinds of garden truck that the farmers will bring to us. We pay nothing but cash.
We also want all the eggs and chickens we can get, as well as other kinds of produce.

Would be glad to have the farmers call and talk with us about what they will have for sale this season.
Do this the first time you are in Louisa. Our place of business is Important Decision.

The NEWS has been requested to call the attention of the authorities of incorporated towns in this county to a recent decision of the Court of Appeals regarding roads. The case went up from Nelson county, and the Court held that when county roads entered or passed through incorporated towns or cities it was the duty of the town or city to care for and keep up that much of the road or roads. This does not include the erection or keeping up of large bridges. Blain, Fallsburg, and possibly Louisa may be affected by this ruling.

OUR WEST VIRGINIA NEIGHBORS.

The W. M. Ritter Lumber Company, of Mahan, W. Va., with several of its employees, has been indicted by the Federal grand jury at Charleston on the charge of peonage.

The supreme court of West Virginia has decided that the charters of the town of Pt. Pleasant gives the council the right to grant liquor licenses regardless of the wishes of the county court in the matter. When the news was received in that town, an exchange says bells were rung, cannons boomed, parades were formed and there was all sorts of rejoicing.

Marlinton, W. Va., June 7.—For the seizure and repeated assault of Miss Ona Bird, daughter of Judge Bird, when she was eloping with Arnold Gladwell, while the helpless lover peered into the barrel of a revolver, Warwick Ratcliff, accused with Albert Gay, was sentenced to-day to serve 20 years in prison. The jury had recommended mercy. Gay will be placed on trial within a few days.

Gladwell and his sweetheart had stopped at the cabin of Gay and Ratcliff for shelter when fleeing from her home to be wedded in Virginia. There the fiendish assaults were committed, Gladwell finally escaped and summoned a rescuing party. When they reached the cabin the girl was on her knees begging for mercy. Ratcliff was holding a revolver at her temple.

New York, June 7.—There is a romance attached to the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Kenna, of Charleston, W. Va., a bride and groom of a few days, who are stopping at the Waldorf-Astoria.

Mr. Kenna is a son of the late United States Senator Kenna, of West Virginia, and he married Miss Gertrude Higgins in St. Joseph's Church in Washington Wednesday, coming to New York on their way to the Jamestown Exposition for their honeymoon.

The wedding grew out of a boy and girl romance which began before the death of the Senator several years ago, when young Kenna was but 16 years old. When the Senator died his son put on overalls and went to work to learn the railroad business with which his father had been connected. He worked hard and in the meantime he kept in touch with his child sweetheart, who encouraged him in his work. After five years of work he felt in a position to ask her to marry him.

A. S. White, of the Columbia Gas Company, was greatly pleased over the following dispatch. W. T. Hunter is the general manager at the New York headquarters, while Enslow is Superintendent of the new gas fields, with headquarters at Huntington, W. Va. Twenty-three wells are now in full operation in the 250,000-acre field, and work is progressing on seven more. The strike gives excellent promise of the strength of the wells yet to be opened.

"New York, June 7, 1907.

"A. S. White Sinton Hotel, Cincinnati, Ohio: Enslow wires that our first well on the Riley property is a good oil producer. He has been offered $50,000 for it. He expects a big producer in the second well. May strike Big Indian sand Monday. Allen reports Guyandotte and Lincoln wells in first-class shape. Wells already in have open flow of 100,000, 000 cubic feet per day.

—W. T. Hunter.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney and Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Sunday School is progressing nicely at this place, with E. W. Jones, Superintendent.

Col. Chadwick, who has been on the sick list, is able to be out again.

Reber, Riffe is taking his first term in moving.

Several attended the log rolling at J. W. Elkins' Sunday. The party was given by Tillie Elkins and all reported a nice time.

Cliff Hewlett will leave soon for Bells' Trace. Ben Bently will accompany him.

Claude Stewart is making cross ties for H. B. Hewlett and has got his job nearly completed.

Ben Haws is going to school at this place.

Mrs. Hewlett is going to Louisa to visit her friend, Mrs. Riffe.

THE ORIGINAL POROUS PLASTER.

It's Allcock's, first introduced to the people sixty years ago, and to-day undoubtedly has the largest sale of any external remedy—millions being sold annually throughout the whole civilized world. There have been one to even compare with Allcock's—the world's standard external remedy.

For a weak back, cold on the chest or any local pain, the result of taking cold or overstrain, there's nothing we know of to compare with this famous plaster.

FREE TRIP FOR 3 LADIES

To the Great Jamestown Exposition With all Expenses Paid by The News.

The BIG SANDY NEWS will pay the expenses of the three most popular ladies in Lawrence county on a week's trip to the wonderful Jamestown Exposition. The trip will be made in August, 1907, when the Exposition is well under way, when the weather is good, and when summer vacation is at hand. The three ladies will go with the Editor of THE NEWS and his wife as their especial guests, and their every comfort and enjoyment will be carefully looked after. Remember, their every Expense will be paid by the NEWS—railroad fare, sleeper and dining car fees, hotel bills, admissions to Exposition and concession shows, street car fares, lunch bills etc., etc.—everything from the time they leave Louisa until they return home safe and happy. Everything will be first-class. They will travel in Pullman cars, take their meals in elegant dining cars, and stop at the best hotels. It will be the trip of a lifetime!

Who may go on This Trip.

Every respectable lady in Lawrence county and part of Wayne is eligible to be our guests on this joyous outing, be she married or single. In order that there may be a fair chance for every part of the territory to be represented we have decided to divide it into districts as follows:

One Lady from District A:

Embracing three Voting Precincts, viz: Upper and Lower Louisa, and the districts of Wayne county, W. Va., in which Fort Gay is located and which are reached by the Fort Gay Rural Free Delivery.

One Lady from District B:

Embracing Voting Precincts, viz: Bear Creek, Falls of Blaine, East Fork, Dry Fork, Cat Creek, Twin Branch Cherokee.

One Lady from District C:

Embracing Voting Precincts, viz: Upper Blaine, Swetnam, Georges Creek, Dobbins, Peach Orchard and Rockcastle, Blaine and Little Blaine.

The party elected from each district must live or be employed within its limits. That is the only requirement—and that is done for their own protection. Any person any where may vote for any candidate in any part of the county. Candidates may solicit votes anywhere they please. The votes can be mailed to the Contest Editor of the NEWS, or may be delivered in person at THE NEWS office. The voter may deposit his or her own ballot if preferred.

How the Selections Will be Made.

The ladies who will go on THE NEWS' free trip are to be chosen by the people. Everybody can vote—old patrons or new ones, rich or poor, young or old. Every dollar paid to THE NEWS on subscription, job printing or new advertising will entitle the payor to cast 100 votes. No payment of less than $1.00 will be entitled to any votes.

As a special recognition of new subscribers and advance subscriptions we make this allowance: Any one who pays IN ADVANCE one year's subscription to THE NEWS will be entitled to 125 votes; two years, 250 votes; three years, 400 votes; four years, 550 votes; five years, 700 votes; six years, 900 votes; seven years, 1,100 votes; eight years, 1,300 votes; nine years, 1,500 votes; ten years, 2,000 votes. (No clubbing rates or agent's commission allowed when votes are taken.)

Payments on old subscription accounts, 100 votes for each dollar.

No person connected with the NEWS will be allowed to take part, solicit votes or cast a ballot under any circumstances. The NEWS pledges its honor that the contest shall be fair and equal to all candidates. No favoritism will be shown, no assistance or suggestions will be given to any one that are not given to all. It must and will be a square deal.

The Contest will Close August 14th, 1907.

NOW, PLEASE KEEP IN MIND:

That every girl or woman of good character in Lawrence county is eligible to be a candidate.

That a vote cast for a lady nominates her as a candidate in her district—nothing else to do.

That she will have to compete only with the candidates in her district, but may get votes anywhere.

That the lady receiving the highest vote in her district will go as the representative of that district.

That every Dollar paid to THE NEWS for subscription, job printing and new advertising obtained through the efforts of the candidates themselves is good for 100 votes.

That it is easy to win if you get busy early in the race, and get your friends interested.

That it will be the trip of a lifetime, and you will be the person at guest of the Editor.

The Race is on! Nominate Your Favorite To-Day.

Address all Communications to, or call to see.

OBITUARY.

On Thursday evening, May 16, 1907, the pale horse and its rider touched the form of Leander Christian. Leander was born Dec. 7, 1880. A good man is gone. He was a good Christian and to-day he is safe in the arms of Jesus. He suffered greatly with lung trouble. All that loving hands could do was done. Jesus wanted him in heaven, and if we prepare to meet him, we will be his associates in Heaven. He has ever kept the lamp of the Lord in his hands, and while passing through the dark shadow of death, he feared no evil.

He left a widow and children. O Lord be a father to the widow and children. He left a father, mother, three sisters and five brothers, to mourn their loss. May God bless and comfort you. A Friend.

HUNTINGTON, W. VA.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

Owingsville, Ky., June 10.—Bernice Young, of color, was brought here and jailed on the charge of attempting to assault the eight-year-old daughter of Nim Corban, a prominent merchant, near this town.

Owingsville, Ky., June 5.—Mrs. Richard Walters, aged thirty-five years, a bride of three weeks committed suicide this morning by drinking carbolic acid. She was married four times and leaves a husband and three children. She was dead when found. Ill health was the cause of the suicide.

Grayson, Ky., June 10.—The grand jury of the Grayson term of the Carter Circuit Court adjourned Saturday, returning seven indictments, two which are felonies and one recommitment, the smallest number of true bills ever returned by a grand jury in this county. The jury reconvened at Olive Hill today for a week's session.

Ashtand, Ky., June 5.—George Crumby was fatally gored by a bull on his farm near Summit this morning. He had turned the animal loose in the barnyard, and while crossing the yard to fasten the gate was attacked. The bull forced him against a post and gored him in the bowels, then trampled him until driven off with pitchforks. Crumby will die.

Morehead, Ky.—It developed in the Circuit Court here that there is an organized band of about one hundred moonshiners and illegal whiskey dealers on the border lines of Rowan, Morgan and Elliott counties, and that this band is intimidating witnesses by threats of violence, preventing their appearance here before the court. This revelation was made by a witness on the stand and created quite a sensation here. Judge Young declares his intention to get to the bottom of the matter and is making investigations.

Can't Miss It

So many ailments are purely nervous affections, that you can hardly miss it if you try Dr. Miles' Nervine. It restores nervous energy—and through its invigorating influence upon the nervous system, the organs are strengthened. The heart action is better; digestion improved, the sluggish condition overcome, and healthy activity re-established.

"Dr. Miles' Nervine is worth its weight in gold to me. I did not know what ailed me. I had a good physician but got no relief. I could not eat, sleep, work, sit or stand. I was nearly crazy. One day I picked up a paper and the first thing that met my eyes was an advertisement of Dr. Miles' Nervine. I concluded to try it and let the doctor go, and I did so. After taking two bottles I could dress myself. Then I began taking Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and now I can work and go out, and have told many the benefit I have received from these remedies and several of them have been cured by it since. I am fifty-nine years old and pretty good yet."

ANNA R. PALMER, Lewistown, Pa.

Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails, he will refund your money.

IN MEMORIAM

Lizzie Lyons, born July 26, 1878, departed this life April 26, 1907, aged 28 years and 9 months. Lizzie joined the church when about 20 years old and remained a faithful Christian until death. She leaves a husband and two small children here while she is with her children that had preceded her to the realm of light. I heard her say she was going to her children and begged her husband to meet her in glory. And we would say, "Frank, remember her pleadings. If our Heavenly Father who loves us with an everlasting love, thinks proper to mix some salt with our portion of life, sensible of the beneficent hand from which our visitation comes, may we bow our heads in silence and say with the afflicted Resheth of Job, "Good is the Word of the Lord concerning me."

I will say to the husband, and it will be the greatest honor you can ever acquire to instruct your children in these principles which made the prospect of death agreeable and even a welcome to their mother. So that when the Great God shall appear to judge the world, you may be able to stand before him and say, "Here I am and the children which thou has given me."

We love to write about one who was loved by everybody, as Lizzie Lyons. She was a good wife.

neighbor, a true and loving and kind and devoted mother.
